PROCEDURAL SAFEGUARDS AND COMPLAINTS FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION

The Board of Trustees desires to protect the rights of students with disabilities in accordance with the procedural safeguards set forth in state and federal law. Parents/guardians shall receive written notice of their rights in accordance with the law, Board policy, and administrative regulations.

The Chief Executive Officer or designee shall represent Da Vinci Schools in any due process hearing conducted with regard to Da Vinci School's students and shall inform the Board about the results of such a hearing.

The Chief Executive Officer or designee shall address a complaint concerning compliance with state or federal law regarding special education in accordance with Da Vinci Schools uniform complaint procedures.
