Your Questions: Share Out
What professional development will be offered to teachers to help them build remote learning skills?
How can students keep track of their assignments via remote learning?
How will help be provided for students who fall behind during remote learning?
Will students be required to attend live video sessions during the class period offered?
Will teachers record lessons so that students who cannot attend a live session can access the lesson?
In addition to letter grades, will credit/no credit be offered?
How will teachers engage students while they are learning from home?
What will distance learning look like in the fall, and can we have regularly scheduled times for instruction?
